1.

How do you envision the Internet evolving over the next decade, especially regarding accessibility, privacy, and integrating emerging technologies like AI and IoT?

2.

One interesting takeaway from his insights is his emphasis on bridging the digital divide. Vint Cerf often highlights the importance of making the Internet accessible to everyone worldwide, not just those in developed nations. He advocates for expanding connectivity to underserved regions, ensuring that the benefits of the Internet are shared globally.